

Call for Expressions of Interest, Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions Individual Fellowship Applications (Centre for Medieval Literature, Odense/York)

The Centre for Medieval Literature (University of Southern Denmark, Odense, and University of York) invites expressions of interest for Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions (MSCA) Individual Fellowship applications, September 2019 deadline. Selected candidates will receive mentorship from the Centre for Medieval Literature in applying for an Individual Fellowship based at either the University of Southern Denmark or the University of York.

About the Centre for Medieval Literature (CML)

The CML is based jointly in the Department of History at the University of Southern Denmark and the Department of English and Related Literature at the University of York. Our research is interdisciplinary and multilingual, combining literary study with history, history of art, history of science, and other disciplines. We cover a broad range of topics addressing texts within and, especially, beyond the established medieval literary canons. The CML works to establish theoretical models for the study of medieval literature on a European scale. Our research is organized in three main strands: Imperial Languages, Canon and Library, and Transformations and Translocations. For more information, see <http://cml.sdu.dk/>.

About MSCA Individual Fellowships

This information is based on the 2018 competition and may be subject to change.

MSCA Individual Fellowships are open to applications from individuals with a doctoral degree or at least four years' full-time research experience by the time of the call deadline. The grant provides an allowance (1 or 2 years) to cover living, travel and family costs. In addition, the EU contributes to the training, networking and research costs of the fellow, as well as to the management and indirect costs of the project. The grant is awarded to the host organization. The application consists of a research proposal written jointly with the host organization (CML at either the University of Southern Denmark or the University of York). The application call should open in April 2019 with a September 2019 deadline. For more information, see https://ec.europa.eu/research/mariecurieactions/actions/individual-fellowships_en as well as the [Guide for Applicants \(including template\) \[http://ec.europa.eu/research/participants/data/ref/h2020/other/guides_for_applicants/h2020-guide-appl-msca-if-2018-20_en.pdf\]\(http://ec.europa.eu/research/participants/data/ref/h2020/other/guides_for_applicants/h2020-guide-appl-msca-if-2018-20_en.pdf\)](http://ec.europa.eu/research/participants/data/ref/h2020/other/guides_for_applicants/h2020-guide-appl-msca-if-2018-20_en.pdf).

Timetable for applications with CML (UPDATED January 24, 2019)

- February 22, 2019. Expressions of interest due
- March 2019. Results of expressions of interest communicated; first application drafts due (from selected candidates)
- April 2019. Revised applications due. Application master class
- May-August 2019. Further revisions
- September 2019. Deadline

Next Steps

Submit 1) a two-page description of your proposed project, taking into account the three sections of the Individual Fellowship proposal (Excellence, Impact, and Implementation – see the Guide for Applicants, including template), and 2) a one-page CV, by email to Dr Kristin Bourassa (kristin@sdu.dk), Academic Manager, Centre for Medieval Literature, by February 22, 2019.